Understanding Freelancing

Freelancing is the ability to work on your own but you are not a permanent employee with one company. Freelancers provide writing, graphic designing, web development and digital marketing services to clients worldwide.Such websites as Fiverr, Upwork, and Freelancer enable people to find foreign customers. The greatest benefit of freelancing is the flexibility- you can work at home, make your own hours and select projects. Nonetheless, freelancing needs to be guided, disciplined, and skilled. In the absence of these, it will be hard to compete in the international market. This is precisely where Bano Qabil comes in.

The way Bano Qabil Trains Students to be Freelancers.

1. Skill-Based Training

Bano Qabil aims at values that are practical and highly demanded in the world. Students do not learn theories; instead, they are doing tasks in the real world. Some of the best freelancing skills which are taught are:

Digital Marketing

Graphic Designing

Web Development

Content Writing

The skills are not only applicable, but they are also very lucrative in the online market.

2. Hands-On Practice

The focus on practice is one of the major advantages of Bano Qabil. Students are not taught things only, but they put them into practice with assignments and projects.

For example:

A student of graphic design designs logos and posts on social media.

A web development student develops websites.

A digital marketing major is one who takes campaigns.

The practical exposure of the students enables them to build a portfolio that is crucial in becoming a successful freelancer.

3. Freelancing Guidance

Acquiring a skill is very easy. The problem of most students is how they can start to earn money online. Bano Qabil fills this by instructing:

- The process of making profiles on freelancing sites.

How to write winning proposals.

The way to communicate with clients.

How to execute projects in a professional manner.

This advice allows one to pass through the student-freelancer transition without difficulties.

The key to the success of freelancing is a strong profile. Bano Qabil educates students on how to produce professional and appealing profiles that are outstanding.

The main components of the profile that are important:

Portfolio Development is important.

The lack of experience is one of the greatest problems of beginners. Customers are more attracted to freelancers who are able to provide evidence of their work. Bano Qabil addresses this issue by promoting the creation of portfolios among students when training.
